Danielle Smith married Lucas Towill

Music: We carefully selected songs from our favourite artists to set a mood that reflected 'us'. Walking down the aisle to U2's 'In a little while' was that little bit more special because of my encounter earlier in the day with Bono. To celebrate the exchanging of our vows we had John play James Brown 'I feel good'. We entered the reception venue as Mr and Mrs Towill to Bob Marley 'One love', our bridal waltz was Jack Johnson 'Better together' and we finished the night with Bernard Fanning 'Wish you well'. The dance floor was never empty with the help of our friendly DJ from The Blue Shadow Group playing the best songs from the categories that we suggested.

Danielle and Lucas were an absolute pleasure to deal with from start to finish. The delightful couple enjoyed a grand entrance to 'You Could Be Loved' by Bob Marley and waltzed romantically to 'Better Together' by Jack Johnson. They chose some excellent songs for their other formalities too, which got everyone off their chairs. Our DJ, Jen, had a fabulous night and enjoyed every moment of it!

DVD: Mirage Media had one of the longest shifts throughout the day. To ensure that every moment was captured, filming began at 10am and continued through to the early hours of the night. The amazing thing was that we never felt that we were being filmed. Although Mirage had a team of three people capturing every moment, they were wonderfully skilled at blending into the background. We are so glad that we got the day on film and cannot wait to see the finished product.

This wedding was beautiful and an absolute joy for us to capture as Danielle and Lucas were such an appreciative and down to earth couple. We felt privileged to be chosen to capture their wedding day on film, as we know that their video will be a detailed reminder of their big day and something they will cherish forever. Congratulations Danielle and Lucas! We wish you every happiness as you embark on your new journey as husband and wife.

Transport: Our day of luxury was not complete without a super stretch limousine from Elle Limousines. Colin our driver was a true gentleman and professional making each little trip a highlight in itself.

Honeymoon: We had an amazing time! Thai Airways International flew us to Phuket in Thailand. It is truly a beautiful part of the world and we got to see what the island had to offer in five star luxury! Laguna Grand Sheraton had so much to offer and it was the perfect way to cap off our dream wedding. Our days were filled with snorkeling, visiting outer islands and lounging by the pool or the beach which fringed the hotel. Our room was beautiful and the staff couldn't do enough to help us! The Thai cuisine was delicious and the fresh seafood will be hard to beat! I fell in love with the two resident baby Elephants Yum Yum and Ning Nong who would visit the beach every afternoon for their daily swim. The resort is out of this world and we had a honeymoon that topped off a great year.

Thank you so much everyone!
