Itinerary

- 10.00am Pick up from your resort.
- 10.15am Arrive at Phra Tong Temple in Thalang, famous for the half-buried golden Buddha statue called Luang Poh Prathong (Golden Buddha) in its grounds.
- 11.15am Visit Thalang National Museum, an important cultural attraction of Phuket, containing ancient artifacts from Phuket's colourful history.
- 12.30pm Arrive at Rang Hill to enjoy panoramic views over southern Phuket. Then enjoy a delicious traditional Thai food lunch.
- 1.30pm Travel to Phuket Town. In this quarter of the town you will see old buildings designed in Sino-Portuguese architectural style, and once occupied by Phuket's tin mining barons over 100 years ago.
- 1.30pm Visit the local fresh market and sample some exotic Thai fruits which are unique to the region as the Leisure Host leads guests through the very interesting, bustling market.
- 2.00pm Arrive at Jui Tui Chinese Temple. Built in the 1920s, it's the oldest and most famous of the Chinese temples in Phuket.
- 2.15pm Visit Pornthip Sea Store which is one of Phuket's largest local souvenir shops.
- 3.00pm Return to Laguna Phuket.
- 3.30pm Arrive back at your resort.
